Cindy will talk to Jim Garren regarding the possibility of borrowing the needed equipment for volleyball. She will have available ropes for tug-of-war, hula hoops and a train ride for children.

The food and paper products will be purchased on Wednesday, October 24th by Cindy and Susan out of available employee funds. Brett Watson will bring supplies for a candy corn guessing game and apple bobbing. Hilda Moore and Lisa Bridges will bring chili for hot dogs. Cindy Martin will bring slaw. Susan Foster will bring chopped onions. Tiffany Cooper, Bret Watson and Susan Foster will bring ice. The baked beans will be made at the cabin prior to the event. Each employee will be asked to bring a drink for their family. Committee members are asked to come at 3:00 to decorate and prepare the food.

On Wednesday, October 17th Lisa Bridges will send out a reminder e-mail asking employees to R.S.V.P. with the number attending and to bring a drink. Employees will be encouraged to bring an instrument for music.

Sign-up sheets for tug-of-war on Grub Day were distributed to the committee. The period to sign-up for a team is October 15-22. Forms are due back to Cindy Martin, Kimberly Snyder, or Lisa Bridges by 2:00 p.m. on Monday, October 22nd. It was suggested that the form be posted on The Learning College web page to encourage student participation.

Brett Parker and Kimberly Snyder suggested co-sponsoring a health fair in the spring with the SGA. This could include providing health information, career information and health screenings. The committee will hear more about this in February or March.

There will be a short meeting on Monday, October 22nd at 3:00 to report the final number that will be attending the festival and discuss any overlooked details. The status of the tug-of-war competition will also be reported. The meeting adjourned at 2:45 p.m.
