Minute
10/04/05

The Campus Life Task Force met at 12 noon on Tuesday, October 4, 2005. Cindy Martin, Susan Foster, Lisa Bridges, Carol Lattimore, Kimberly Snyder, Karen Jones, Marnie Smathers, Cindy Hightower, and David Libera were in attendance.

A brief review of the upcoming “Hillbilly Hoedown” on November 4, was given by Cindy Martin. The location for the event will be in the Student Center Lobby and food will be set up in the College Café.

Cindy Martin will arrange for maintenance to make additional chairs available. Entertainment will be varied. Ben Sizemore and Becky Cleland will play as guests arrive. Jamie Spratt and others will play next. There will be an “Open Mike / Unusual Talents” showcase. Fifteen to twenty acts have already confirmed. Acts will be limited to two minutes. Terry McEntire will emcee the event. There may also be opportunity for line dancing and other forms of group dance.

Evelyn Parks and Cindy Hightower have agreed to organize the food for the event. The Foundation will provide ice. Ice chests, cups, plates, & napkins will need to be acquired. Via e-mail, Evelyn and Cindy will assign someone to bring these items as well as making sure everyone knows to bring a snack (finger food) item and/or drinks. Representatives have been assigned to each building to encourage participation and to get a count of those planning to attend. RSVP date has been set at Thursday, October 27.

Building representatives are as follows:

The Foundation – Marnie Smathers (downstairs)
Susan Foster (upstairs)

Building 1 - Terry McEntire
Building 10/12 - Kimberly Snyder
Lisa Bridges
Carol Lattimore
Karen Jones

Building 3 - Debra Jones
Machine Shop/Welding etc. – Curtis Vance

Building 6 - Paula Walker

Buildings 11 & 14 – Evelyn Parks & Cindy Hightower

Library and Maintenance Department will be assigned by Cindy Martin following discussion with Sandra Boyd and Pat Kultgen

Terry McEntire and Lisa Bridges will work on invitation flyers to be e-mailed and hard copies passed out to all faculty and staff.

Karen Jones announced a Safety Seminar to be given by Carl Jackson on Thursday, November 3 from 1:30-2:15 pm in the testing room. Mr. Jackson might also have a display on Grub Day.

Kimberly Snyder asked for the assistance of Campus Life building representatives during the SGA Hurricane Relief Effort. Boxes will be placed in the Library, Student Center, Foundation (1st floor), Administration Building, Business Sciences Building, and Applied Sciences Building. Campus Life members are asked to help keep watch on these boxes for security and to alert SGA if boxes need to be emptied.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday, November 2 at 2:00 in the Student Center lobby to finalize plans for the November 4th event.

This meeting was adjourned at approximately 1:45
