

Willard L. Lewis Staff Award

This award was established in 2008 and named in honor of Dr. Willard L. Lewis, then president of the college, in recognition of his dedication to and leadership of Isothermal Community College. The objective of this award is to identify and individually recognize staff who have consistently demonstrated commitment and contributions to the mission of the college, exhibiting consistent excellence on the job far above normal requirements, and providing significant contribution to the College and its students.

Any college employee, part time or full time, may nominate someone for the Willard L. Lewis Staff Award. Nominations are made annually during each current academic year beginning in March and concluding the end of April. The contribution to learning being recognized must have occurred during the current year. Additional information is available on the college website or the college intranet site <http://www.isothermal.edu/employees/intranet>.
