

College Provided Vehicles

The President is authorized to use a college vehicle for his/her own personal use at his/her own expense and to drive the college vehicle from the college to his/her home at the expense of the college as he/she is on 24-hour call. The President may designate other college personnel to use a college vehicle in the same manner. As an alternative, the President may be provided a monthly vehicle allowance from local budget funds which he/she may choose to receive as a salary supplement. The President may designate other college personnel for a monthly vehicle allowance in the same manner.
