

Role of Curriculum Personnel in Academic Governance

The College's curriculum personnel, in partnership with the administration, ensure the overall effectiveness of the educational programs. Additionally, curriculum personnel are involved in the College's decision-making processes in the following ways:

1. Have primary responsibility for the content, quality, and effectiveness of the curriculum.
2. Participate in program/division-level decisions and activities.
3. Participate in College committees based on the President or designee's appointment.
4. Participate in an advisory or governance body (e.g., College Council or Faculty Senate), which is designed to provide broad-based participation in the College's planning process, educational issues, and other related issues.
